Who Are You Wearing?

MIGUEL DULICK

The closer Jesus gets to his death, the more targeted are his parables, specifically to the "chief priests and elders." He has no patience with their hypocrisy.

The wedding feast has a long history in the prophets and the psalms, always a glorious celebration of love and delight—God marrying the chosen people. But in today's gospel, Jesus speaks of the feast as a massacre. When the guests refuse to attend his son's wedding, and they even kill the messengers sent to invite them, the enraged king amasses his troops to destroy "those murderers" and burn their city to the ground. So, the chosen people are un-chosen. Then, the king tries again, this time sending the servants to "whomever [they] find." And then comes a beautiful moment: the servants invite the "bad (literally, "evil") and good alike," and they fill up the hall! This echoes Jesus' own promise of the cross: "When I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw everyone to myself" (John 12:32).

OF OUR PARISH
COMMUNITY

There is one more twist to the story that keeps Jesus in his own uncompromising space. When the king spots a guest without a "wedding garment," he binds him hand and foot and throws him out into the darkness. Pretty scary—but do stay with Jesus. Accept the invitation to the banquet. And let Jesus dress you in his own garment of grace.●

On this mountain the Lord of hosts will provide for all peoples a feast of rich food and choice wines.

ISAIAH 25:6

Do I show up to the banquet (the Eucharist) prepared to listen, pray, and be fed?

SOCIAL ACTION CORNER

The Social Doctrine of the Catholic Church is a body of teaching that applies Gospel values to social, economic, and political life, promoting human dignity, justice, solidarity, and the common good.

Common Good

Social structures should serve the well-being of all, balancing individual rights with collective responsibilities.

The Common Good doctrine refers to the idea that political and social institutions should protect and promote conditions that benefit all members of a community. It centers on the belief that societies must cultivate shared conditions—institutions, norms, and resources—that allow people to flourish together.

Core Principles

- Shared benefit: The common good is what benefits society as a whole, not merely individual preferences.
- Collective action: Achieving the common good requires citizenship, cooperation, and participation in public life.
- Institutional conditions: It includes systems like justice, public safety, education, and health infrastructure.
- Protection of dignity: Shared goods must protect individuals and consider their dignity.

"The Church has rejected the totalitarian and atheistic ideologies associated in modern times with "communism" or "socialism." She has likewise refused to accept, in the practice of "capitalism," individualism and the absolute primacy of the law of the marketplace over human labor." (III. The Social Doctrine Of The Church, 2425)

Reflection: When I make a decision, do I consider the effect it may have on others or are my priorities more important? Do I participate in local endeavors to improve my community? Do I vote for governments dedicated to helping all citizens?

PRO-LIFE NEWS

We first reported that:

According to 2025 statistics, Canada ranks 22 of 28 developed countries in terms of availability of psychiatric beds (Mental health care). The wait time for psychiatric care in Canada, on average, is nearly 25 weeks, while a lethal injection will soon be provided in just under 13 weeks (MAiD).

March 17, 2027 is the day when anyone with any mental or psychological condition can claim their suffering is "grievous and irremediable" and thus "qualify" for death by lethal injection. Bill C-218 will be voted on Oct. 7, 2026 in an attempt to reverse and defuse this "MAiD bomb".

Now we have an update:

Some good news for now. The Federal Government will table legislation to indefinitely exclude people, whose sole medical condition is a mental illness, from receiving MAiD - This was announced by Justice Minister Sean Fraser today, Oct. 7—even though he also said that Liberal MP's would vote later in the day against Bill C-218.

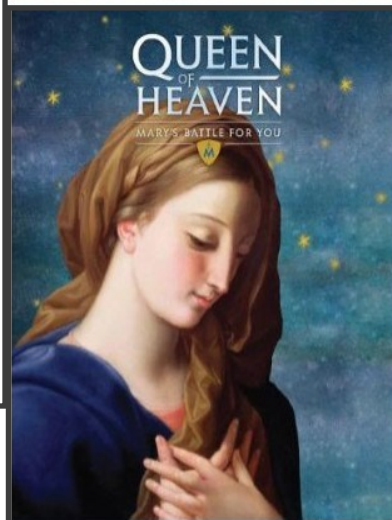

Fraser said the government had concerns that the Bill's wording could "close off access to people who suffer from serious degenerative neurological disorders." He added that the legislation the government plans to introduce on MAiD would permit advanced requests for Canadians diagnosed with serious illnesses who may lose capacity to consent in the future. *

(* And when they decide they no longer want to die, what then? ... The Next Battle.)

Without the burden of afflictions it is impossible to reach the height of grace.

ARCHBISHOP'S APPEAL

This Sunday's readings remind us of God's abundant generosity and His invitation to each of us to share in His Kingdom. Through the prophet Isaiah, we hear of a rich banquet prepared for all people—a beautiful image of God's desire to welcome, nourish, and bring hope to everyone.

In the Gospel, Jesus tells the parable of the wedding feast, reminding us that God continually invites us into a deeper relationship with Him. Our response to that invitation is reflected not only in our faith but also in the way we live, serve, and care for one another.

Pre-Congress Synod Conversation on Ecumenism

In conjunction with the ArchRegina Congress, you are invited to join a pre-Congress synod conversation on ecumenism/Christian unity.

Catholic doctrine understands that all who are baptized are incorporated into the one mystical body of Christ. Thus, despite the wounds of history, all baptized Christians are one people of God, the Church. The Second Vatican Council teaches that elements of sanctification and truth have been preserved in varying degrees by other Christian communities, and calls us to be open to receiving these gifts. All of the baptized share in this ministry of unity.

7 to 9 pm on Friday, October 30, 2026
at Holy Trinity Parish, 5020 Sherwood Dr, Regina.
All are welcome. No registration required.

For more info, contact Nick Jesson at jesson@ecumenism.net

* As part of the global synod implementation, a series of synod conversations are planned. Come join in the conversation around these important questions In what ways does our baptismal identity as ambassadors of Christ, entrusted with God's ministry of reconciliation (2 Cor. 5:18-20), shape how we encounter, listen to, and respond to Christians of other traditions—especially when differences or misunderstandings arise?

* What "wounds" from history or current divisions have you encountered in relations with other Christians, and how might processes of repentance and healing begin in our community?

* What gifts from other Christian traditions—such as their spiritualities, theologies, or social commitments—have enriched your faith, and how can we receive them with gratitude?

* What concrete actions can you propose to make ecumenism a lived reality in your parish and community?

ALSO: please register to attend the ArchRegina Congress at Resurrection Parish, October 31, 10am to 3pm. See <https://archregina.sk.ca/event/archregina-congress-2026/>

STEWARDSHIP BULLETIN BITS

"My God will fully supply whatever you need..."
– Philippians 4:19

God really does provide for those who are grateful and generous. This is very difficult for people who don't live a stewardship lifestyle to believe. People are skeptical and say it's just coincidence. If you are skeptical, try living a stewardship lifestyle for just one month – be generous with your gifts of time in prayer, talent in charitable works, and treasure, then see how God provides for your needs.

ArchRegina Congress: Blessings Remembered, Hope Renewed

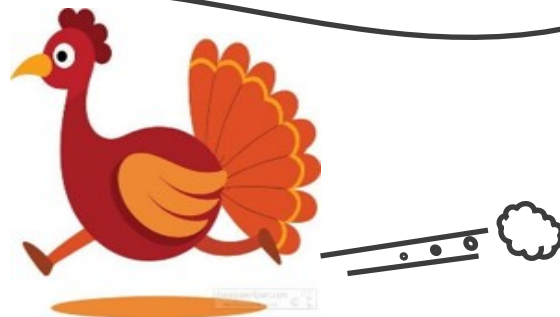

What might God be inviting our parish communities to become, and where do we begin?

Join us for our annual Archdiocese of Regina Congress on October 31 at Resurrection Parish from 10:00 AM – 3:00 PM (with an optional Mass at 9:00 AM).

Together we'll continue to explore God's vision for the Church and consider what that vision might look like in our parishes. Through prayer, communal discernment, and creative activities, we'll reflect on our blessings, name our challenges, and share our hopes and ideas for the future. Together, we'll identify practical, pastoral next steps for our parishes and our diocese and set a path forward as we prepare for our Archdiocesan Synod Assembly in May 2027.

Please register by Monday, October 26, to mgurash@archregina.sk.ca or call 306-352-1651.

Happy Thanksgiving!

MAiD and the Stories We Carry: Reflecting Together on Dying, Death & MAiD

On October 17, we're gathering to reflect on how Medical Assistance in Dying (MAiD) has touched our lives — especially when someone we love has chosen this path. Many people carry questions, mixed emotions, or unfinished conversations, and this workshop is meant to be a gentle space to share those experiences.

Saturday, October 17, 2026
10am to 4pm (lunch provided)
Christ the King Parish
3239 Garnet St., Regina, SK

We'll take time to talk about dying and death in our own families and communities, learn how MAiD is defined and guided by the Government of Canada, and explore faith-based and interfaith perspectives on care, accompaniment, and alternatives. As we move through the session, we'll check in on what you're learning and what feels helpful.

Before we close, you'll also have the chance to suggest any follow-up workshops or supports you feel would benefit our community.

Register by Oct 14 through the parish website at <https://www.christtheking.ca/event-registrations> or call the office 306-586-9020.

NOTE from Pro-Life Corner, Holy Cross Parish:

Euthanasia Prevention Coalition President, Gordon Friesen, says that "politically imposed euphemisms like 'medical aid in dying' are designed to avoid any reference to 'killing' and with a simple wave of the wand, both 'suicide' and 'homicide' are deemed to disappear."

It is misleading vocabulary brought about by adding the word 'medical'. He argues that "Medical Homicide" is a term perfectly adapted to dispel these myths ... to allow for a meaningful ... conversation ...", a proper definition.

BLESSED FULTON J. SHEEN

Fulton J. Sheen has just become the Catholic Church's newest Blessed and the first U.S.-born bishop to achieve this recognition. Born in El Paso, Illinois, Sheen was one of the most celebrated Catholic communicators of the 20th century. Known for his radio and television programs, he captivated millions of viewers with his accessible way of sharing the faith and even won an Emmy Award in 1953.

His life was marked by fearless preaching of the Gospel, memorable quotes, and a love for the Eucharist. He is considered a "prophet" for having preached and taught things that transcended his own time.

HOLINESS IS A DAILY JOURNEY

One of Blessed Sheen's best-known quotes is, "You say you don't go to Church because it's full of hypocrites there? I say you're right, but come anyway, we've got room for one more." With good humor, he invited those who had drifted away from God and the Church to return, focusing not on the sins and shortcomings of others, but on the divine grace available to everyone.

Being "in the Church" does not mean we cease to sin or instantly become saints. Through his message, Bl. Sheen teaches us that holiness is a daily decision, not something that happens magically. It is a path we walk until the very last day of our lives; we will stumble, as will others, but it is always time to a over!
