MATTHEW 17:2

Where Heaven and Earth Meet

ANN M. GARRIDO

Have you ever noticed that mountains and clouds seem to “go together”? When I was a child, I thought it was because the mountains’ height pierced the sky. Turns out, it’s a bit more complicated. Mountains “create” their own clouds. When moving air comes across a mountain front, it forces the warm air to rise to cooler zones and water droplets in the air to condense. The phenomenon is so common that these clouds have their own name: lenticular. They are known for being bright—even colorful—with rays of light peeking out from behind.

It’s no wonder why, throughout history, people have sought to ascend mountains as part of their spiritual journey. It was a way to get closer to the “heavens”—to those radiant clouds. Recall the prophet Elijah, who climbs Mount Sinai seeking a face-to-face encounter with God. Or Moses, who, with three of his closest friends, ascends Mount Sinai to meet God in a radiant cloud that hovers over the top of the peak.

So, it’s also no wonder why Jesus, with three of his closest friends, might also climb a mountain and meet Elijah and Moses there. No wonder why that mountain would be covered in a bright cloud that thunders with God’s voice, and why, in that moment, Scripture describes heaven and earth as mysteriously yet visibly mingling in the person of the transfigured Jesus.

The story of the transfiguration reminds us that just like mountains and clouds were meant for one another, heaven and earth were meant for one another. Jesus stands at the point where the two meet. ●

RECOLLECTION

Join us this weekend, Saturday, March 7, for a time of Recollection with Fr. Scott Lewis, SJ. It runs from 9 am to 12 noon with a light lunch following.

Fr. Lewis is a Director of Catholic Studies and Lecturer. He has been a weekly columnist for the Catholic Register for the past 16 years. His writings focus on topics that help readers explore the Bible, especially the Gospels, in an informed manner to appreciate their richness. He is currently assisting in campus ministry and pastoral work within the Archdiocese of Regina.

During the Recollection we will pray the Liturgy of the Hours, hear Fr. Lewis's discourse, adoration & benediction, the Rosary, and Mass.

If you're having trouble settling on something positive to offer our Lord this Lent, consider joining us Saturday morning.

RECONCILIATION

A reminder that an evening Reconciliation next week—7:00 pm Thursday, March 12 - will have multiple priests available to hear your confession before the big celebration of Easter arrives.

FAST AND ABSTINENCE

As Catholics we are obliged to join the Church around the world in the only two days of fast and abstinence—Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

For Catholics aged 14 years and older, every Friday is a day of abstinence from meat.

From the age of 14 until the age of 60 all Catholics are obliged by the law of fasting, which is eating two small meals and one regular meal, with no food in between meals.

38 Years of Service to Holy Cross

Sask K of C Vocations Endowment

In 2018 the Bishops of Saskatchewan partnered with the Sask K of C Charitable Foundation to create the Sask K of C Vocations Endowment. The proceeds from this Endowment are disbursed on an annual basis equally to each seminarian throughout all Saskatchewan Dioceses, Eparchy and Abbey to help defray the $30,000 per year it costs to educate each Seminarian.

In support of the K of C Vocation Endowment, the Knights of Columbus Gerein Council will participate with our Parish in a fundraising campaign beginning on Feb 28/Mar 1 weekend.

Details of the K of C Charitable Foundation Vocations Endowment project can be found in the brochure, which is enclosed in this weekend's Parish bulletin, and in the Holy Cross website (holycrossregina.ca). More details about the Vocations Endowment can be found at the Foundation's website: saskkofc.foundation/sask-k-of-c-vocations.

In 2025, the parishioners of Holy Cross donated approximately $1,000 towards the support of Saskatchewan Seminarians through the K of C Vocation Endowment program. The Knights are very grateful for your generosity!

Please continue your ongoing prayers for Vocations, along with your financial contributions.

SHAMROCK SALES

Knights of Columbus members from our Council will be selling Shamrocks in support of Camp Monahan next weekend, Sat. Mar 8th & Sun. Mar 9th, after each Mass. This is a reminder that the 2026 membership dues notices have been sent to Council members. For those affected, kindly remit your dues at your earliest convenience. Payment options are outlined in the notices.

10 QUESTIONS ABOUT FRIDAY ABSTINENCE

1. Why is Friday a penitential day?

Jesus was crucified on a Friday. Therefore from the start of Christianity, Fridays have always been set aside as a day to remember Christ's suffering and death.

The Code of Canon Law states that every Friday of the year, along with the entire season of Lent are "penitential days and time" for the universal Church. Friday penance allows the faithful to "gladly suffer with Christ that they may one day be glorified with Him."

2. Why do Catholics give up meat?

In ancient & medieval times, meat was considered a luxury. It was used for feasting and celebrations and not for daily consumption. Giving up meat was a renunciation of something enjoyable. Therefore, it was an appropriate way to make reparation for sin and unite suffering with Christ. Abstaining from meat on specified days was a visible way to make communal acts of penance.

3. What exactly does "abstinence from meat" mean?

Abstinence from meat means refraining from the consumption of warm-blooded animals, including land animals and birds. Animal by-products such as eggs, milk & cheese are now permitted under Church law. Fish and other cold-blooded animals are not classified as meat. Therefore, Catholics may eat them on days of abstinence.

4. Why is seafood allowed?

"Flesh meat" (Latin: caro, carnis) referred to the flesh of warm-blooded land animals in Latin Christian tradition. Fish or cold-blooded animals were less expensive and in a different food category; therefore, they were not restricted.

5. Who is required to abstain from meat and when?

Canon law states that Catholics must abstain from meat on all Fridays during Lent, unless there is a major solemnity. [You have already received the requirements for observing Lent, printed elsewhere in this bulletin.]

6. Is this only during Lent, or all year?

Every Friday of the year is a penitential day. Catholics should carry out some sort of penance each Friday, even if they choose to abstain from meat, though this is no longer binding under the pain of sin.

7. How does abstaining from meat help spiritually?

Abstaining from meat helps strengthen our will, trains us in self-denial, and detaches us from the world. Detachment helps us unite our sufferings to Christ and wholly rely on Him. We should unite our fasting and abstinence with prayer and acts of charity. These sacrifices can help us draw closer to Christ and grow in holiness. Also, Friday penance unifies the Catholic Church in remembering Christ's suffering and death on the Cross.

8. Why is Friday abstinence especially emphasized during Lent?

The 40-day Lenten season models Christ's 40

PARISHIONERS' CORNER

There are four birthdays to celebrate this week: Edwin Pepper on Tuesday, Mar. 3; Roslyn Flaman and Loretta Jelinski on Wednesday, Mar. 4; and Jeanine Wild on Saturday, the 7th.

May the Lord bless you and keep you! The Lord let his face shine upon you, and be gracious to you! The Lord look upon you kindly and give you peace.

Sincere condolences to Mike Morris whose sister passed away recently. Please pray for his sister and for Mike and his family.

We owe a great, big thank you to Maggie & Edwin Pepper for their service to parishioners who enjoy coffee and a donut after Sunday Masses. They have picked up the donuts & coffee cream for years for us and now it's time for others to take over that task. And thanks to the Fenrick family, they have agreed. Cheers to them!

We hope you have been taking advantage of the special Lenten events at Holy Cross each week. Thanks to all parishioners who have volunteered to make soup and sandwiches for the Poor Man's Supper and the groups leading Stations of the Cross each Friday. At this time all the Easter Masses and other significant services are being planned by the Liturgy Committee. Watch for how you might contribute.

PRO-LIFE NEWS

"I was shocked to see stats showing that 90,000 Canadians have chosen to have themselves killed through euthanasia. MAiD has turned into a holocaust against the sick and elderly. Every one of these deaths is a crime against humanity and an offence to God. Humans were not created by God to kill one another. Behind every euthanasia death is a rejection of what it means to be human, as well as a rejection of God."

Comments by Pete Baklinski, Canadian Pro-Life News Bits, campaignlifecoalition.com, Oct. 17, 2025 commenting on the results of governments' policies after an election change in Newfoundland.

days, is meant to remember and unite our sufferings with Christ Crucified.

9. How did this practice develop historically?

The early Church Fathers, such as Clement of Alexandria, practiced abstinence on Friday. This is also mentioned in The Didache. By the early Middle Ages, popes and councils required abstinence from flesh meat on Fridays; the 1917 Code of Canon Law codified the rule. The modern Code (1983) states that Friday is a day of penance. However, local bishops' conference can decide how to carry out these requirements.

10. Can non-Catholics participate?

All Christians are encouraged to join the Catholic Church in carrying out a Friday sacrifice as a means of remembering Christ's suffering and death on the Cross. Friday penance is a tangible way to live the Christian life in both words and actions. Source: Jacquine Burkepile, Church-POP, Feb. 25, 2026

Bach's St. John Passion

The Regina Symphony Orchestra invites you to experience the Passion story brought to life through one of the most powerful sacred works ever written: St. John Passion by Johann Sebastian Bach.

Composed in 1724, Bach's St. John Passion sets the Gospel of John's account of Christ's arrest, trial, crucifixion, and burial in music of extraordinary depth and beauty. From intimate, prayerful chorales to dramatic, urgent choruses, the work draws listeners into the unfolding Passion story in a deeply personal way. The Evangelist narrates with clarity and intensity, the soloists give voice to the people and witnesses of Jerusalem, and the choir powerfully portrays both the crowd and the faithful.

More than a concert, this is an act of devotion. Bach wrote this masterpiece not for the stage, but for worship. Nearly three centuries later, its message remains immediate and moving, inviting us to stand at the foot of the cross and reflect on Christ's sacrifice with renewed understanding.

Join us for this special Lenten presentation of Bach's St. John Passion and prepare your heart for Holy Week through music that has inspired generations of believers.

STEWARDSHIP BULLETIN BITS

"Go forth from the land of your kinsfolk and from your father's house to a land that I will show you."
Genesis 12:1

God calls all of us to leave behind our old ways and to follow Him, placing our complete trust in Him. Some of the old ways that we struggle to leave behind might be materialism, selfishness and greed. Yet God promises to show us a new land and a better way to live. Remember what St. Teresa of Calcutta said, "God does not call us to be successful, God calls us to be faithful."

Reflections on the Eucharist by Bishop Robert Barron

"...there is the Eucharist, which is daily food, nourishment to get us through the day-to-day. How effective would we be if we never ate, or ate only on special occasions and in a festive environment? Not very. So, in the spiritual life, we must eat and drink or we will not have the strength."

"What is the Eucharist, this heavenly food, but a participation in the love between the Father and the Son? In the Eucharist, the sacrifice of Christ is made present, and the sacrifice of Christ is the fullest expression of the love of the Father and the Son."
