The Gradual Road to Ruin

FR. THOMAS M. SANTA, CSSR

A wise old sage once observed, "When it starts out stupid, it just gets more stupid." The parable in today's gospel illustrates this wisdom.

The son has been sent. The jig is up. The owner is not going to give up the vineyard. The tenants gambled and lost. It's time for them to accept the inevitable and pay the rent. But common sense and wisdom do not prevail. Kill the son, they think, and all that he would have inherited will be ours!

How do you get from "don't pay the rent" to "kill the son"? It is not a straight or smooth path. There are a lot of twists and turns between point A and point B. But it happens. It sneaks in. It demands little compromises and small dishonesties along the way as it becomes easier and easier for you to choose what is destructive. Then, you find you have lost it all—your very self. And the corruption you've embraced convinces you that you're making wise choices. You must be completely cleansed of the seduction that has enabled you to make these choices. You need to start again. ●

PRO-LIFE NEWS

Pope Leo recently visited Lourdes/France, a well known pilgrimage site. He gave a speech of truth and hope. Just over two months ago, France legalized assisted suicide and euthanasia. Many of the pilgrims present in Lourdes on the Pope's visit were suffering illnesses, some terminal. Pope Leo spoke first about the dignity of human life; then stated:

I know that for some of you, because of particular illnesses and, at times, terrible pain, your horizon may appear dark, uncertain and without hope. But no human law should ever make you lose the certainty of your dignity. On the contrary, it is precisely in the name of this inalienable dignity of the human person that we must reject the temptation to cause death under the guise of false compassion. It is impossible to regard causing death as something normal. What is legal is not necessarily moral."

SOCIAL ACTION CORNER

"By this all people will know that you are my disciples if you have love for one another." (John 13"35)

Social Doctrine of the Catholic Church

The Social Doctrine of the Catholic Church is a body of teaching that applies Gospel values to social, economic, and political life, promoting human dignity, justice, solidarity, and the common good.

Human Dignity: "Dignitas infinita" (infinite dignity) is a 2024 declaration issued by the Holy See's Dicastery for the Doctrine of the Faith and approved by Pope Francis, emphasizing the indivisible and infinite dignity of every human person.

All human persons were created in the image and likeness of God and redeemed in Jesus Christ. From this truth, the Church draws the reasons for her commitment to the weak and those less endowed with power always insisting on "the primacy of the human person and the defense of his or her dignity beyond every circumstance." (Pope Francis, Apostolic Exhortation Laudate Deum (4 October 2023))

In Fratelli Tutti, Pope Francis wanted to underscore that this dignity exists "beyond all circumstances". With this, he summoned all people to defend human dignity in every cultural context and every moment of human existence, regardless of physical, psychological, social, or even moral deficiencies. The Declaration strives to show that this is a universal truth that we are all called to recognize as a fundamental condition for our societies to be truly just, peaceful, healthy, and authentically human.

Reflection—Do I treat all people I meet with dignity, conscious of their rights as a human being? Am I dismissive or intolerant of others? Do I offer my aid, resources, support, comfort to the elderly, sick, weak and/or marginalized among us?

PARISHIONERS' CORNER

Birthdays for this week: Kathleen Garrity on Mon. Oct. 5; Jan Genert; Marie Lebersback, and Peggy Tonita on Tues. Oct. 6; and Judy Miazga on Sat. Oct. 10.

May the Lord bless you and keep you! The Lord let his face shine upon you, and be gracious to you! The Lord look upon you kindly and give you Peace.

We're glad to say all people we mentioned last week who had been in the hospital—Harvey Kennedy, Gladys Herzberger, and Albert Robillard—are all home again. We were happy to see that Gladys was able to attend Mass and the Pancake Breakfast on Sunday.

There are lots of Fowl Suppers scheduled for these next few weeks. Here's a fun place to be involved. Our own Harvest Supper is Sun. Oct. 18. Look for how you can help: There are places to sign up in the Gerein Centre for decorating, setting up and taking down, selling 50/50 tickets or manning the wine bar. Many hands make light work.

(If I got anyone excited about perogies, when you knew I really meant cabbage rolls, my apologies. But that isn't right either. Since the Harvest Supper is being catered we cannot add any of our own supplies. Think

What's Happening in the Archdiocese

ARCHBISHOP'S APPEAL

In this Sunday's readings, we are reminded that everything we have is a gift from God, entrusted to our care. In the Gospel, Jesus tells the parable of the tenants who forget that the vineyard belongs to the owner. It is a reminder that we are called to be faithful stewards, using the gifts God has given us to bear fruit for His Kingdom.

St. Paul encourages us not to be anxious but to place our trust in God with thankful hearts. When we respond to God's generosity with generosity of our own, we become part of the good fruit He desires to see in the world.

The Archbishop's Appeal is one way we can faithfully care for the vineyard entrusted to us. Through our prayers, participation, and financial support, we help strengthen ministries that serve those in need, form future leaders, and share Christ's love throughout our Archdiocese.

STEWARDSHIP BULLETIN BITS

"The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone..." – Matthew 21:42

Jesus was rejected by the religious and political leaders of his day, as well as ordinary citizens, but he was still obedient to God, the Father. Similarly, living a stewardship lifestyle may cause you to be "rejected" by others, but we, too, are called to be obedient. Saying grace before a meal in a restaurant may attract some strange looks from some. But to others it is a sign that God is alive and well!

MAiD and the Stories We Carry: Reflecting Together on Dying, Death & MAiD

On October 17, we're gathering to reflect on how Medical Assistance in Dying (MAiD) has touched our lives — especially when someone we love has chosen this path. Many people carry questions, mixed emotions, or unfinished conversations, and this workshop is meant to be a gentle space to share those experiences.

Saturday, October 17, 2026
10am to 4pm (lunch provided)
Christ the King Parish
3239 Garnet St., Regina, SK

We'll take time to talk about dying and death in our own families and communities, learn how MAiD is defined and guided by the Government of Canada, and explore faith-based and interfaith perspectives on care, accompaniment, and alternatives. As we move through the session, we'll check in on what you're learning and what feels helpful.

Before we close, you'll also have the chance to suggest any follow-up workshops or supports you feel would benefit our community.

Register by Oct 14 through the parish website at <https://www.christtheking.ca/event-registrations> or call the office 306-586-9020.

NOTE from Pro-Life Corner, Holy Cross Parish:

Euthanasia Prevention Coalition President, Gordon Friesen, says that "politically imposed euphemisms like 'medical aid in dying' are designed to avoid any reference to 'killing' and with a simple wave of the wand, both 'suicide' and 'homicide' are deemed to disappear."

It is misleading vocabulary brought about by adding the word 'medical'. He argues that "Medical Homicide" is a term perfectly adapted to dispel these myths ... to allow for a meaningful ... conversation ...", a proper definition.

World Hospice & Palliative Care Day

Tell the Minister of Health that these services are irreplaceable today.

Take one minute to act:
bit.ly/2025Sask

Hello Friends,

This coming Saturday marks World Hospice and Palliative Care Day, a global call to ensure that every person can receive comfort, care and dignity at the end of life.

Here in Saskatchewan we've seen hopeful progress with new hospices in Saskatoon and Prince Albert. Yet the need for quality palliative care continues to grow far faster than the resources available.

- In Saskatoon alone, the palliative home care team now follows more than 600 patients, more than double from just a few years ago, with no increase in staffing to match.
- When families cannot access support at home or in care facilities, loved ones can feel abandoned or forced into choices they never wanted, like MAiD.
- In 2023 only 61% of Saskatchewan residents who received MAiD were known to have had palliative care.

As Canada expands Medical Assistance in Dying (MAiD) in 2027 to include mental illness, this growing gap in care puts our most valuable at risk.

Now is the time to act.

Your voice matters. Stand for compassionate care in Saskatchewan.

With hope and gratitude,
