Spring Cleaning Life

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

When Jesus cleansed the temple, he cleared it of all the sacrificial animals and foreign coins that cluttered that holy place. He also shifted the focus of where we find God made present—from a building to himself. "Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up" (John 2:19). Saint Paul tells us that we, too, are God's temple because the Holy Spirit dwells in us. So it makes sense that Jesus also wants to clear our lives of all that clutters them so that we might grow in his image.

Such decluttering happens when youthful freedom and partying are left behind because we hear some inner call to settle down and contribute to life. It happens when young couples begin to raise a family and trade in sporty cars and fashionable lifestyles for baby furniture and SUVs. It happens in middle age when in the midst of building a life we change the blueprint. The weight of illness will shift our perspectives as well, when worries about life's details turn dispensable because what we once thought was important becomes clutter in need of being cleared out.

None of this comes about because of some user manual for daily living, but rather because we sense an invitation from Jesus to reassess our lives—to join him in clearing out the clutter in order to take care of what is essential. It is a strange sort of wisdom that flows from a source deeper than ourselves. If not for that powerful force of God's Spirit clearing the temples of our lives, we would never become the people God created us to be. ●

Reflect

What might be cluttering your life right now?

While he was in Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, many began to believe in his name when they saw the signs he was doing.

Did you know?

Canada is now the global leader in harvesting organs from euthanized patients. This is known as Organ Donation after Euthanasia (ODE), and in 2022 there were 286 instances of ODE in the world and almost half of them were in Canada.

Canada is one of only seven countries that has legalized ODE and ours is perhaps the most permissive in the world. Patient consent is required and there is no indication that has been abused, but there is also room for curiosity about whether health-care workers, who are completely unrestricted in encouraging this procedure, may have oversold it or conceivably even profited from it.

PARISHIONERS' CORNER

BIRTHDAYS! Edwin Pepper on Sunday, March 3rd; Loretta Jelinski on Monday, the 4th; Huntley O'Connor, Tuesday, the 5th; and Jeanine (Jeanie) Wild (91) on Thursday, the 7th. Congratulations to all, good health and many blessings for the year ahead.

There were Mediterranean and potato home-made soups by Eldon and Gretta-Lynn Ell, and egg salad, tuna, salmon, and peanut butter and jam sandwiches for supper last Friday. The previous week's soups were tomato rice and vegetable pasta by Lynn Heymen. I mention the soups because they are really special. Most of us can make a sandwich, but soups require a certain creativity.

Gerald Workman celebrated his birthday then slipped on the ice, fell and broke his elbow. Sporting a cast didn't slow him down as he was still doing collections at Mass and helping out at the Poor Man's Supper.

Join us this Friday for the Poor Man's Supper, Stations of the Cross and Mass. It's a great way to make a small sacrifice for Lent. There were 29 people who joined us last week, a small increase over the previous week. We hope many more of you will take advantage of this opportunity to improve your Lenten experience.

Nancy Falastein, long time member of Holy Cross, is in the General Hospital. Please pray for her swift recovery.

Holy Cross is a community, a family, and families keep up to date on the well being of their members. Let's pass along news of our parishioners so we can pray for or celebrate with them. Call Martin at 306-347-0929 or Joyce at 306-789-1983, or byapple@sasktel.net Don't be afraid to leave a message.

“You shall not carve idols for yourselves in the shape of anything...” - Exodus 20:4

How many “gods” do you put before God? “Idols” do not always take the shape of physical things, things we can touch and feel. Those are easy to recognize. Many times, they take the form of things we cannot touch and are much harder to spot, like pride, power, ego, time, comfort, or health. Pray for God’s help to prune our vices and to grow in virtue.

Leap Year’s Extra Day has a Catholic Origin

The Council of Nicea in 325 set the date of Easter as the Sunday after the first full moon of spring and the start of spring was fixed as March 21.

In 1582 Pope Gregory XIII set about adjusting the calendar to bring the celebration of Easter to the time of year it was celebrated when it was introduced by the early Church. Pope Gregory XIII determined the Julian calendar, which was used by the Roman Empire, was out of sync with the spring equinox by 10 days. To account for that discrepancy Catholic countries such as Italy, Spain and Poland altered their calendars during the month of October, so that when people went to sleep Oct. 4, they awoke on Oct. 15.

The Julian calendar in use at that time, following the ancient Egyptian one, had one extra day every four years to accommodate that discrepancy but that proved to be too many and the date of Easter would have eventually drifted into summer.

So on Feb. 24, 1582 Pope Gregory issued a papal bull in which he set about to correct the error. The result was the new Gregorian calendar which added an extra day to February every four years, unless the year is divisible by 100. Those years do not have a leap year. The exception to that rule is if the year is divisible by 400. So, following this rule, 1900 was not a leap year, but 2000 was. This mathematically corrected the problem of the extra 10 days needed to be in sync with the astronomical year.
