The Other Side of Love

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

We have an instinct to love; this is something woven into the foundation of human life. It's also a godly instinct, for anything embedded into the human spirit with such intensity must surely be of God. In fact, it is how God is creating a new heaven and a new earth, thereby making all things new as is written in the Book of Revelation. So intense is that inclination to love, we read in the first letter of John that God is love.

While our culture tends to romanticize love, the reality is that, all too often, if we are seriously committed to loving someone, it can also be a lonely effort. Love is not always romantic or satisfying. At times, it can be demanding and even harsh. One day, when I was meeting with an engaged couple in preparation for their marriage, I asked them, as I often do, for their definition of love. Usually, couples are tongue-tied when I ask that question. They know they're in love, and, to them, that seems to be enough. This time, however, the young groom-to-be did not hesitate. He said that love is caring for someone even when they are unlovable—an insightful definition, for it is precisely during such times that we need someone's love. It is the weakest moments of life that are in need of rebuilding, the loneliest moments of life that are in need of someone reaching out a hand, and the darkest moments of life that are in need of light. When that happens, creation is made new. ●

Reflect

What is my definition of love?
How do I live it?

[Jesus said,] "This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

JOHN 13:35

PARISHIONERS' CORNER

Parishioners celebrating birthdays this week are: Dorothy Bresciani and Joan Stulberg on Tuesday, May 20; and Pat Most on Thursday, the 22nd. Happy birthday, all! Congratulations, too, to Lynn & Gerry Heymen who are celebrating their 66th wedding anniversary on Friday, the 23rd.

May the Lord bless you and keep you! The Lord let his face shine upon you, and be gracious to you! The Lord look upon you kindly and give you peace.

June is the month when everything winds down for the summer—people are off to the cottage, away on vacation, or just taking a break from schedules. Early June is a case in point—June 3 is CWL windup supper, June 7 is the Knights windup supper, and June 8 is the Golf Tournament. For the first two we are celebrating a busy and successful year; for the latter we are consolidating and celebrating 25 years of successful fundraising for Holy Cross. We hope many of you will come out to golf or, if not, come for the buffet and do a little reminiscing.

Who is talented at decorating a hall for this 25th anniversary? If you answered, "I am," give Joyce a call at 306-789-1983 or see her in the Gerein Centre after Mass on Sunday morning. Along with prizes and silent auction items we'd like to have a festive atmosphere. All ideas (especially inexpensive ones) are welcome.

Please let us know about any parishioner news so we can pass it on to others for prayers in need or in celebration. Contact Martin at 306-347-0929 or pastoral.assistant@holycrossregina.ca OR Joyce Murphy at 306-789-1983 or byapple@sasktel.net.

THINK ABOUT IT...

A day without sunshine is like, well, night.

I wonder how much deeper the ocean would be without sponges.

When the chips are down the buffalo is empty.

I started out with nothing, and I still have most of it.

PRO-LIFE NEWS

Belgium lawmakers are weighing a controversial amendment to the country's euthanasia law that would allow patients diagnosed with dementia to be euthanized, provided they signed a "Declaration of intent" while still mentally competent. The law would extend euthanasia to those who are no longer capable of expressing consent.

Critics of the proposed amendment have raised ethical and medical concerns. "What is particularly shocking for many is how people with dementia are degraded." Dementia thus becomes the bogeyman of a society that previously defined autonomy and cognitive performance as the essence of human existence. If this bill passes, Belgium will be the second country in the world to legalize euthanasia of people with dementia.

( Source: Christian Daily/Belgium considers euthanasia law expansion to include dementia patients/Chris Eyte/May 5/2025)

Note, the province of Quebec also has this amendment on the table. The door to euthanasia continues to open wider and wider. Who will be deemed, next, to be worthy of euthanasia?

God does not ask all souls to show their love by the same works, to climb to heaven by the same ladder, to achieve goodness in the same way of life.

*What sort of work then must I do?

Stewardship Bulletin Bits

"I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." (JOHN 13:34)

"As I have loved you," this is the hard part – Jesus's love is unconditional; our love usually comes with strings attached. It is easy to love someone when they love you back. But it takes mercy and compassion to love someone when you feel unappreciated, feel used or feel like your opinion doesn't matter. It takes courage and the grace of God to "love my neighbour" when they may be someone you don't like, someone you don't know, or someone that doesn't look like you.

Speak Up for Patients and Healthcare Providers

Medical Assistance in Dying (MAiD) is now the fifth leading cause of death in Canada, but many are choosing it due to feelings of loneliness, fear, or being a burden, not physical pain. At the same time, healthcare workers are being pressured to participate in MAiD, even when it goes against their beliefs.

We are calling on the Saskatchewan government to make two key changes:

- Do not offer MAiD unless the patient asks for it.
- Allow healthcare providers to opt out without fear of punishment

Reverence For Life Prayer

O Mary, to you do we entrust the cause of life. Look down O Mother upon the vast number of babies not born, on the poor whose lives are made difficult, on those who are victims of brutal violence, on the elderly and sick killed by indifference or misguided mercy.

We ask for the grace to accept the Gospel of Life as a gift ever new, and the courage to bear witness to it. To the praise and glory of God, the Creator and lover of life. Amen!
